

International Baccalaureate CAS Support

The UK training side of Wilderness Expertise is a non-profit making organisation dedicated to the personal development of young people. We have purposely remained specialised as a company so that we can maintain strong relationships with our clients and guarantee high quality programmes.

Aim:	The aim of these programmes is to provide expert, high quality facilitators and support for the CAS element of the International Baccalaureate Diploma. This internationally renowned qualification is becoming increasingly popular in the UK. As schools and colleges integrate the Diploma into their curriculum we can provide support for the CAS element with our expertise in developing community service programmes.
Activity Description:	The activity and projects are student led and are unique to the group completing the Diploma. However, as a guide we have provided support for the following activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Community projects ➤ Volunteering at nursing homes ➤ Volunteering working with disabled people at a local stable ➤ Environmental projects
Number of days:	Dependant on level of support required.
Venue:	At the client's premises initially and then local venues dependant on the project planned. All venues are visited and assessed for suitability beforehand with all venue and activity risk assessments completed.
Role of Liaison Teacher:	To provide support and pastoral care of the students during the programme and provide transport for the students if required.
What does Wilderness Expertise provide?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Fully qualified and experienced facilitators. ➤ All specialist equipment. ➤ Pre-course information and all risk assessments for activities. ➤ 24hr back up support. ➤ Liability insurance. ➤ AALA license.
Sample cost:	Due to the bespoke nature of this support we require a meeting or discussion of your requirements before providing a cost.

Wilderness Expertise believes in developing potential.
We look forward to working with you in the near future...
